

ANGKOR NATIONAL MUSEUM

One of the best experiences that you should have in Siem Reap is to visit the great Angkor National Museum in Cambodia. It's filled with different artifacts and proofs of the early civilization in Cambodia. There is a great time exploring the beauty and uniqueness of each artifact as each resembled the unique way of living of early inhabitants (Khmer Civilization). As you continue with your tour in the museum, you will be able to know various beliefs and religions that you manage to understand as you progress with the tour.

The programme provided lessons in both theory and practice on the Golden Era which included:

- . A brief Introduction to Angkor National Museum
- . Gallery of 1000 Buddha images
- . Gallery A: Khmer Civilization
- . Gallery B: Religion and Beliefs
- . Gallery C: The Great Khmer Kings
- . Gallery D: Angkor Wat
- . Gallery E: Angkor Thom
- . Gallery F: Story from Stones
- . Gallery G: Ancient Costume
- . Practice on site with extensive explanation
